PLACES FOR PROMISES

WHERE LOVE

FINDS ITS PLACE

Borgo Laticastelli, Tuscany

Perched among the rolling hills of Tuscany, Borgo Laticastelli is a medieval hamlet transformed into a romantic hideaway, offering the perfect blend of history, charm, and modern comfort.

With its mystical atmosphere and sweeping views, this enchanting estate creates an unforgettable setting for weddings, exclusive dinners, and celebrations for up to 120 guests.

Monte Oliveto Maggiore, Tuscany

Nestled in the heart of Tuscany, Monte Oliveto combines history, elegance, and romance, making it the perfect venue for an unforgettable wedding celebration. With a long tradition in hosting weddings, the castle offers the entire ground floor exclusively for up to 200 guests on your special day.

Its spaces create a truly enchanting atmosphere: a magnificent reception hall adorned with frescoes, a spacious courtyard, an open gallery (the lodge), and a charming garden. Together, they provide the perfect backdrop for ceremonies, receptions, and moments of joy.

Castello del Calcione, Tuscany

Nestled in the heart of Tuscany, Castello di Oliveto combines history, elegance, and romance, making it the perfect venue for an unforgettable wedding celebration. With a long tradition in hosting weddings, the castle offers the entire ground floor exclusively for up to 200 guests on your special day.

Its spaces create a truly enchanting atmosphere: a magnificent reception hall adorned with frescoes, a spacious courtyard, an open gallery (the lodge), and a charming garden. Together, they provide the perfect backdrop for ceremonies, receptions, and moments of joy.

Santa Maria Dell 'Anima, Roma

Nestled in the historic center of Rome, just steps away from the Piazza Navona, Santa Maria dell'Anima offers a truly unique and exclusive setting for weddings.

This historic church, founded in the 14th century as the national church of the German-speaking community in Rome, combines deep cultural heritage with breathtaking architecture.

Weingut Kerner, Niederrußbach

As a wedding location nestled in the picturesque town of Niederrußbach, Weingut Kerner offers the perfect balance of history, authenticity, and elegance.

The vineyards and charming estate provide a romantic backdrop for ceremonies, receptions, and unforgettable celebrations surrounded by nature.

Breitlahner, Zillertal

First built in 1896, the Breitlahner sits majestically opposite a steep rock wall in the Zillertal. Its name originates from the broad avalanches – called “Lahne” in the valley – which once descended here in winter and spring.

For weddings and special events, the Breitlahner offers a unique blend of history, alpine spirit, and cozy hospitality. Surrounded by breathtaking mountain scenery, it is the perfect location to celebrate love and life in an authentic Tyrolean atmosphere.

St. Georgenberg, Tirol

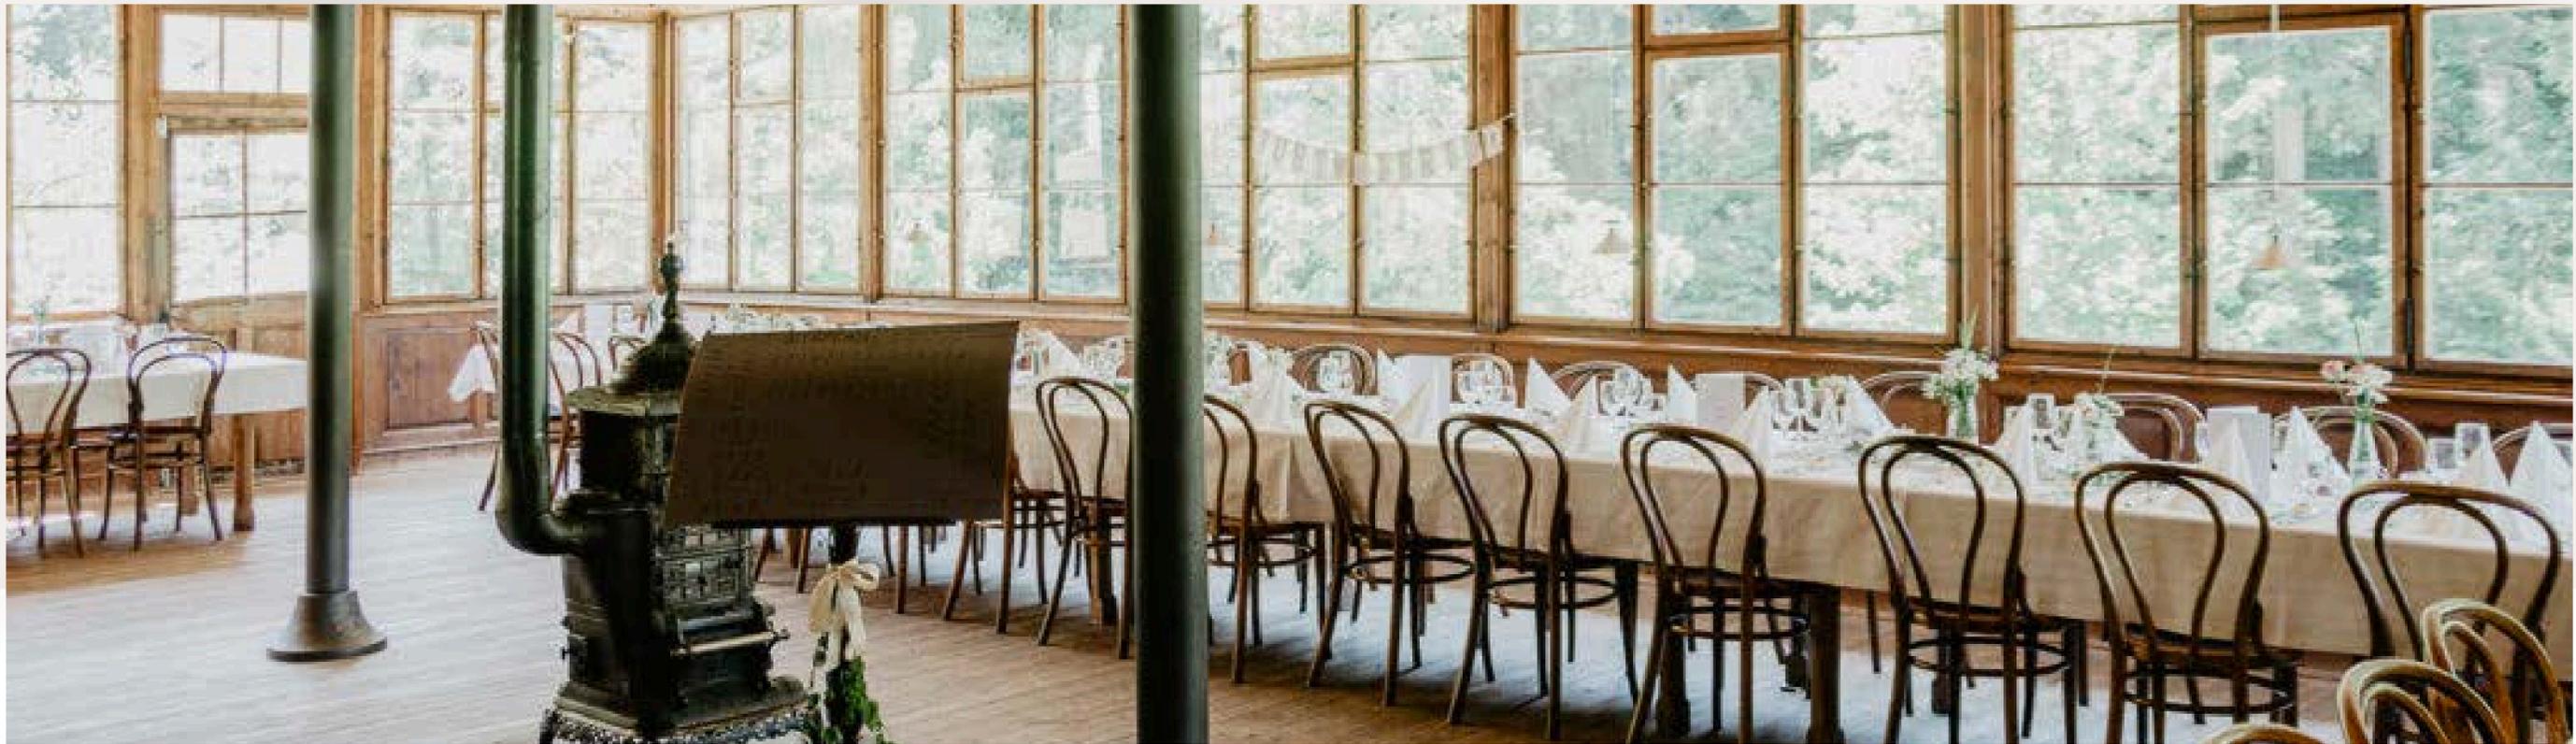

Perched high above the Inn Valley in the Tyrolean community of Stans, the Wallfahrtskirche St. Georgenberg is one of the most historic and spiritual landmarks in the region. Founded in the 10th century, the Benedictine abbey has long been a place of pilgrimage and remains a symbol of devotion, serenity, and timeless beauty.

The atmosphere of seclusion and tranquility makes St. Georgenberg a truly unique choice for weddings. The centuries-old church, rich with history and sacred art, provides a solemn and deeply meaningful backdrop for religious ceremonies. The surrounding nature and panoramic vistas add a sense of majesty, making every moment feel both intimate and monumental.

Volderwildbad, Voldertal

The Volderwildbad is a historic and venerable place, often described as a true “place of energy.” Nestled away from the beaten paths, it offers a unique and atmospheric backdrop for couples searching for something extraordinary.

With its centuries-old chapel right next to the main building, Volderwildbad allows for intimate and romantic ceremonies in an unforgettable setting. The adjoining manor-like house, elegantly furnished and surrounded by unspoiled nature, offers stunning opportunities for your celebration.

Astensmåla Mat&Vingård, Karlshamn

Nestled in the forested countryside of Blekinge, just north of Karlshamn by the Mörrumsån River, Astensmåla Mat & Vingård is a historic estate dating back to 1777. Surrounded by lakes, woods, and open skies, this family-owned farm has evolved into a picturesque setting for weddings that blend rustic charm with culinary excellence.

For weddings, the estate offers an idyllic rural courtyard surrounded by greenery, perfect for ceremonies and cocktail receptions; restaurant and event spaces in historically charming buildings, comfortably hosting up to 80-100 guests and accommodation.
